

The Bergen County Historical Society invites persons of all ages and accomplishments to the 2010

Calico Frolic
A Summer Celebration of Early American Country Dancing

July 17, 2010, 6:30-10:00 p.m.

Steuben House at Historic New Bridge Landing • 1209 Main Street, River Edge, NJ

General admission: $15 • Bergen County Historical Society members: $12

MC Denise Piccino and the Tricorne Dancers

Music by Anne and Ridley Enslow

-- All dances will be taught --

-- Instruction on basic steps and movements provided prior to the start of the dance -- Colonial and Early American dress happily admired, but not required— bring your dancing self!

Directions to Steuben House

From George Washington Bridge: Go West on Route 4. --- Take Hackensack Ave. exit (northbound toward River Edge). --- Continue at , below.

From NJ Route 17: Go East on Route 4. --- Take Hackensack Ave. exit (northbound toward River Edge). --- Continue at **.

 Continue on Hackensack Ave., passing the 2nd stoplight. --- Just after 2nd stoplight, the road forks to a Y. --- Take the right branch, which is the exit drive for Main Street/River Edge. --- At the end of the exit drive, turn right.

--- The historical site is immediately on your left. Steuben House is the last house before the bridge.

Parking: Small lot near Steuben House. Overflow: town lot to left of exit drive at the Y fork.

For more information about the dance or about the historical site and society:

Visit www.bergencountyhistory.org or e-mail contactBCHS@bergencountyhistory.org.